2. BACKGROUND OF MARRIAGE

I, Asmita Sharma, was married to Rajesh Kumar on May 15, 2024, at Hotel Royal Plaza, Lucknow, according to Hindu rites and ceremonies. My father, a retired government servant, spent approximately ₹25,00,000 (Twenty-Five Lakhs) on the wedding, including a gold set (approx. 200g), a silver dinner set, and premium furniture, hoping for my happy future.

3. STATEMENT OF ALLEGATIONS

A. Initial Demands and Mental Cruelty: Immediately after the wedding, Accused Nos. 2 and 3 began expressing deep dissatisfaction with the dowry. They labeled the furniture "outdated" and the jewelry "cheap." Accused No. 1 (Rajesh), instead of supporting me, sided with his parents and told me that his "market value" was much higher and that my father had insulted them by not giving a luxury SUV.

B. Physical Assault and Specific Instances:

- On August 10, 2025: Accused No. 1 demanded ₹10,00,000 in cash to start a new business venture. When I informed him that my father had no more savings, he slapped me and pushed me against the wall, resulting in a head injury.

- On January 15, 2026: Accused No. 3 (Shanti Devi) and Accused No. 4 (Megha) locked me in a balcony for six hours in the cold, taunting me that I would only be let in if I called my father to arrange for a Mahindra XUV700.

C. Criminal Breach of Trust (Stridhan): On the first day of marriage, Accused No. 3 took custody of all my jewelry (approx. 20 tolas of gold) claiming it would be "safer in her locker." Since March 20, 2026, I have repeatedly asked for my jewelry back to attend a family function, but the accused persons have flatly refused, stating that the jewelry is now their "property" as compensation for the "incomplete dowry."

D. The Final Incident: On April 1, 2026, all four accused persons collectively assaulted me. Rajesh (Accused No. 1) threatened me with a kitchen knife, saying, "Do not return to this house unless you bring the cash and the car." I was forcibly thrown out of the house with only the clothes I was wearing. I had to take an e-rickshaw to my parents' home in a state of extreme trauma.

4. PRAYER

In view of the facts mentioned above, it is clear that I have been subjected to continuous physical and mental cruelty for dowry. I, therefore, request you to:

1. Register an FIR against Rajesh Kumar, Om Prakash Kumar, Shanti Devi, and Megha Kumar.
2. Recover my Stridhan (Jewelry and personal belongings) from their possession.
3. Take strict legal action to ensure my safety and justice.

List of Enclosures:

1. Wedding Photographs and Invitation Card.
2. Detailed list of Stridhan items.
3. Bank statements showing wedding expenses.
4. Medical prescription dated Aug 11, 2025 (for head injury).
